-In master programs with thesis, the candidate must get at least 55 points from ALES in the score type announced for the program

- In the doctorate program, the candidate must receive at least "65" points from ALES in the score type announced for the program.

-Internationally recognized GRE and GMAT scores can be used as ALES equivalents. GRE and GMAT scores are valid for 5 years.

-In applying for doctorate programs, the candidate must have a foreign language score of at least 55 or a equivalent score in a foreign language exam accepted by the Interuniversity Board

-The candidate who does not take oral and/or written exam or talent exam/portfolio assessment is considered unsuccessful and can not be assessed.

-In the programs where the oral and the written exams are applied together, the total score is calculated by taking 50% of the oral exam grade and 50% of the written exam.

-If the candidate's oral and/or written exam score is under 60 out of 100 points in the master's programs with thesis and 70 out of 100 points in a doctoral/arts qualification program/portfolio assessment, the candidate is considered unsuccessful .

-In calculating the graduation grade averages, the table for equivalence of the grading system in 4 to the grading system in 100 by the Council of Higher Education is taken into consideration
